I. PURPOSE

The purpose of these rules (“Rules”) is to provide for fair, orderly, and impartial conduct and voting at shareholders’ meetings. It is the intent of Sitnasuak Native Corporation (“Corporation”) to be as inclusive of all participants as possible throughout the process of preparation for the shareholder meetings. Any interpretation of these Rules shall reflect this purpose and intent.

The Corporation has established safeguards to ensure Board elections are fair. To help preserve the transparency and integrity of the voting process, the Corporation does not utilize a Board slate of candidates. Proxy tally information is not shared by the Inspector of Elections with any person prior to the close of in-person voting registration and then only to the Proxy Committee and executive management when the Committee casts its ballot. Importantly, the outcome of the election and the identity of successful candidates are not known before the close of voting and vote tabulation by the Inspector of Elections.

The Inspector of Elections and the Corporation’s Shareholder Department staff are available during normal business hours to assist shareholders with voting during the election cycle. At times, other trained Corporation staff may be asked to assist shareholders when the Shareholder Department is not available.

II. OFFICIALS

A. Chair of the Board of Directors

Pursuant to the Bylaws, the Chair of the Board of Directors (“Chair”) is to organize the shareholder meeting and preside at the shareholder meeting. The Chair may delegate organizational tasks to management. If the Chair is unable to preside at the shareholder meeting, the First Vice-Chair, or in the First Vice-Chair’s absence, the Second Vice-Chair shall preside.

B. Parliamentarian

The Chair may designate a parliamentarian to assist in the logistics and conduct of the meeting and to advise the Chair.

C. Inspector of Elections

The Board shall appoint a member of a Certified Public Accounting Firm to serve as Inspector of Elections and be responsible for: receiving and maintaining custody of proxies, revocations of proxies, powers of substitution and other documents submitted by shareholders; tabulating proxies, votes, and ballots and responding to inquiries concerning them; preparing ballots for shareholders, tabulating votes, and announcing voting results; determining the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the presence or lack of a quorum; taking such other acts as are reasonable, necessary, or appropriate to conduct the election or vote in accordance with these Rules and the Bylaws of the Corporation; adopting such procedures consistent with the law, the Bylaws of the Corporation, and these Rules as will most fairly and expeditiously facilitate the performance of these responsibilities for the annual meeting; and after adjournment of the annual meeting: (a) maintaining, at the expense of the Corporation, all proxies, ballots, tabulations, and other records of balloting and voting, and (b) one hundred (100) days after the final adjournment of the annual meeting, notifying the Corporation's Chair and President in writing of the intention to destroy such records and, unless directed otherwise by the Chair or President within two (2) weeks after such notice, promptly destroying such records. The Inspector of Elections may designate persons to aid or assist him or her. The Inspector of Elections shall be paid fees pursuant to a schedule of rates approved by the Board of Directors at the time the Inspector of Elections is appointed.

D. Election Judge

The Board shall appoint a retired judge or, alternatively, an individual selected from a list or lists submitted by the American Arbitration Association, to serve as the Election Judge. The Election Judge shall have authority to decide controversies that may arise regarding the interpretation of these Rules or the law. The Election Judge shall have full authority to modify any provision of these Rules as he or she deems necessary to meet the purpose stated in Section I of these Rules.

1. No Authority to Investigate. The Election Judge has no authority to act as an investigator of facts. The Election Judge shall only consider facts presented to him or her. All persons submitting a proxy solicitation, or challenging a solicitation or a proxy, have the burden to provide credible factual evidence to the Election Judge to support the position they take. Rumors, suspicions, opinions, innuendo, and the like will not be considered credible factual evidence.
2. Support Staff and Remuneration. The Election Judge shall be empowered to designate his or her own counsel and to provide himself or herself with such support staff as he or she deems necessary to carry out his or her duties in an expeditious and efficient manner. All reasonable expenses advanced by the Election Judge shall be paid by the Corporation. The Election Judge shall be paid fees pursuant to a schedule of rates approved by the Board of Directors at the time the Election Judge is appointed.
3. Ex Parte Communications. On matters of controversy, communications with the Election Judge shall be in writing with a copy to all necessary parties or at a hearing with notice to all necessary parties. The following communications are expressly permitted:
 - a. the Board of Directors will authorize an employee or agent of the Corporation to make routine and administrative contact, either verbal or written, with the Election Judge on behalf of the Corporation, and to address with shareholders matters related to the election and rules that are not otherwise the responsibility of the Inspector of Elections or Election Judge.

- b. The Inspector of Elections may contact the Election Judge for routine questions or coordination. To the extent the communication involves an interpretation of or advice concerning the Bylaws or these Rules, the Election Judge shall notify the Corporation. Routine communications with the Election Judge shall also be in writing with a copy to the Corporation's General Counsel.
4. The decisions and opinions of the Election Judge are final as to the Corporation and subject to challenge only as may otherwise be provided by law.
5. Participants may agree in writing to submit a dispute arising under these Rules to the Election Judge pursuant to the Alaska Uniform Arbitration Act.

III. INDEMNIFICATION, IMPARTIALITY, AND OATH

A. Indemnification

The Corporation will indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Inspector of Elections, Election Judge, or other election officials retained by the Corporation from any claim or suit arising out of the good faith performance of the duties set forth in these Rules.

B. Impartiality

Neither the Inspector of Elections nor the Election Judge shall be a shareholder of the Corporation, an employee of the Corporation, nor have substantial business dealings with the Corporation, other than service as an election official.

C. Oath

Prior to commencement of duties, the Inspector of Elections and Election Judge shall sign the following oath: "I [name], hereby swear or affirm that I will faithfully execute the duties of [Inspector of Elections/Election Judge] as set forth in Sitnasuak Native Corporation's rules for shareholder meetings, the Bylaws of the Corporation, and applicable law at the [date] Shareholders' Meeting with strict impartiality and according to my best ability."

IV. PROCESS FOR BOARD TO SELECT CANDIDATES TO APPEAR ON BOARD PROXY

A. Application for Inclusion on Board Solicited Proxy

The Corporation shall make available an application for inclusion on the board solicited proxy ("Application"). The purpose of the Application is for the Corporation to ensure that the Corporation and the candidates comply with the law and these Rules. The Application shall state that by submitting the Application, the shareholder intends to serve as a director if elected. The Application shall also require shareholders to agree to follow the law and these Rules and make timely responses to additional requests for information from the Corporation. Applicants are required to provide the Corporation with any additional information that the Corporation deems necessary to make disclosures required by law.

B. Shareholder Submission of Application

Any voting shareholder over the age of eighteen may apply to be included on the board solicited proxy by completing and submitting the Application. By submitting the Application, a shareholder expresses their intent to serve as a director if elected.

C. Board Consideration of Application

The Board will review the submitted Applications of qualified individuals to be listed on the board solicited proxy.

V. RULES AND PROCESSES FOR PROXY SOLICITATION

A. Compliance with these Rules and the Law

In addition to compliance with these Rules, all persons soliciting proxies for an annual meeting of shareholders must comply with applicable laws governing the solicitation of proxies, including regulations promulgated by the Alaska Division of Banking & Securities. It is the responsibility of each person soliciting proxies to obtain a copy of the current regulations and to conduct their solicitation in accordance with the regulations, these Rules, and other laws governing the solicitation of proxies. A candidate who does not comply with these Rules or other applicable laws governing the solicitation of proxies, including regulations promulgated by the Alaska Division of Banking & Securities, and is elected to the Board, shall at the discretion of the Board, forfeit their Director monthly stipend for a period of 1 to 3 months.

B. Use of Board Solicited Proxy

Each shareholder entitled to vote will be mailed a Board solicited proxy with their name, number of shares, and number of votes. A shareholder may request a replacement Board solicited proxy card from the Shareholder Department or Inspector of Elections. The Shareholder Department or Inspector of Elections will provide shareholders replacement cards with their name, number of shares, and number of votes filled out. No person, including but not limited to Board members, candidates, shareholders, or Corporation staff, may use a blank Board solicited proxy card to solicit votes for any candidate or shareholder proposal. A blank Board solicited proxy card is a Board solicited proxy card that has not been prepared by the shareholder department or Inspector of Elections containing a name and share and voting information ready for signature and dating by a shareholder or the shareholder's legal representative.

C. Independent Proxy Solicitations

Individuals who wish to solicit their own proxy: (i) must use the form as shown in Attachment 1 to these Rules and such proxy solicitations must be preceded by disclosures in the form shown in Attachment 2 to these Rules; and (ii) may not also be listed on the Board solicited proxy. An individual who is listed as a candidate on the Board solicited proxy may not participate in the solicitation of any independent proxies.

D. False or Misleading Statements

A solicitation may not be made by means of a proxy statement, proxy, notice of meeting, or other communication which contains any statement which, at the time and under the circumstances in which it is made, is false or misleading with respect to any material fact, omits to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements made in the solicitation not false or misleading, or omits to state any material fact necessary to correct any statement in an earlier communication regarding the solicitation of a proxy for the same meeting or subject matter which has become false or misleading. Solicitations shall be made in plain and understandable language and shall give a fair presentation to any issues discussed. The following non-exclusive list includes some examples of what, depending upon particular facts and circumstances, might be found to be misleading:

1. material which directly or indirectly impugns character, integrity, or personal reputation, or directly or indirectly makes charges concerning improper, illegal, or immoral conduct or associations, without factual foundation;
2. failure to so identify a proxy statement, proxy, or other soliciting material as to distinguish it clearly from soliciting material of any other person soliciting for the same meeting or subject matter; or
3. claims made before a meeting regarding the success or failure of a solicitation.

E. Other Prohibited Solicitations

A person may not solicit: (1) an undated or postdated proxy; (2) a proxy which provides that it is dated after the date on which it is signed by the shareholder; (3) a proxy which fails to disclose the shareholders' meeting, or any adjournment of shareholders' meeting, for which it is solicited; (4) a proxy which confers authority to vote at more than one shareholders' meeting; or (5) a proxy which authorizes a vote at any shareholders' meeting other than the one described in proxy materials accompanying said proxy.

F. Pre-Approval of Solicitation Materials

1. Presumptions. A written proxy solicitation (such as mailers, print ads and social media) shall be presumed true where the proxy materials have been submitted to the Election Judge in accordance with these Rules. A written proxy solicitation (such as mailers, print ads, and social media) shall be presumed to be false or misleading where the proxy materials have not been submitted to the Election Judge in accordance with these Rules. Both these presumptions are rebuttable. Statements which, considered in the context in which they appear, are limited to "Vote for (Candidate Name)" or "I support (Candidate Name)" and express no other fact or opinion shall not be presumed misleading. Comments or replies to a social media solicitation shall not be presumed misleading if they are in response to a prior social media solicitation that has previously been pre-approved by the Election Judge.

2. Submission to Judge. All persons wishing to submit written proxy materials to the shareholders must complete the Corporation's Proxy Solicitation Approval Form which shall be signed, dated, and include a verification that all information contained therein is accurate. The submission shall be filed with the Corporation.

3. Posting Period. The Corporation shall immediately upon receipt make the materials available for inspection by any shareholder. Upon receipt, the submission shall be date and time stamped by the Corporation and Directors will be notified of each submission.

4. Comment or Objections. Any shareholder wishing to comment on submitted proxy materials as to their compliance with these Rules may submit the comments to the Corporation within three business days of the materials posting by using the Corporation's Proxy Solicitation Comment Form.

5. Forwarding to the Election Judge. After the three-day comment period has expired, the Corporation shall forward any timely comments or objections on to the Election Judge with the solicitation materials.

6. Review by Election Judge. The Election Judge shall review all proxy materials submitted to him or her for compliance with these Rules. Scripts of oral proxy solicitations by radio, telephone, or proposed communications by social media (including Facebook, Twitter, and the like) may be submitted to and approved by the Election Judge in the manner described herein. The Election Judge may request of any person soliciting proxies a written submission of factual information supporting any representation made in any proxy solicitation materials. The Election Judge may, but is not required to, respond to any comments (but will inform of a decision to make no comment) on proxy materials, and the communications from the Election Judge will be posted in the corporate office.

a. The Election Judge shall, within eight (8) days of receipt of such material, inform the party soliciting proxies in writing either: (i) that the Election Judge does not object to the materials being sent to shareholders in the form submitted; (ii) that the materials require specific additions, deletions, or modifications to comply with these Rules, and that if such additions, deletions or modifications are made, resubmitted and verified by the Election Judge as in compliance, the Election Judge will have no objection to them being sent to shareholders; all communications between a participant and the Election Judge, pursuant to this provision, shall be faxed or emailed to the corporate office for posting; or (iii) the materials as submitted do not comply with these Rules and cannot be made to comply with them simply through additions, deletions, or modifications.

b. Candidates and participants may personally distribute duplicates of their proxy solicitation materials to shareholders after approval by the Election Judge and receipt of the letter from the Election Judge advising the candidate that their proxy solicitation material had been approved.

7. Inquiries and Challenges to Proxies. All proxies desired to be voted at any shareholders' meeting must be received by the Inspector of Elections not later than 5:00 p.m. Alaska time at least three (3) days before such meeting. No proxy received thereafter may be voted at the meeting.

a. Any shareholder wishing to challenge a proxy on the grounds that it was not solicited in compliance with these Rules, is in improper form, or does not contain the true signature of a shareholder may do so by filing a written challenge with the Election Judge at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting. The Corporation will promptly forward a copy of the written challenge to the Election Judge and the person submitting the proxy being challenged. The Election Judge may order a date and time for a response to the challenge.

b. The Election Judge shall then schedule and proceed expeditiously to hear the matter, but the hearing shall take place in accordance with such rules and upon such evidence as the Election Judge, in his or her sole discretion, shall deem appropriate and just. The Election Judge shall then rule as to whether the proxy was validly obtained in accordance with these Rules or is otherwise valid or invalid, and his or her decision shall be final.

G. Proxy Tallies

As soon as practicable after the deadline for submission of proxies has passed, the Inspector of Elections is responsible for preparing a preliminary proxy tally of directed proxy votes and undirected proxy votes. The Inspector of Elections shall adjust the preliminary proxy tally as a result of any shareholder who revokes their proxy, or any proxy votes ruled void by the Election Judge. After the close of registration, the Inspector of Elections shall prepare ballots for all proxy holders with the total directed and undirected votes allocated to each proxy holder. At least one-half hour before the close of balloting, the Inspector of Elections shall provide each proxy holder with a final ballot and appropriate assistance to ensure that the ballot is cast in accordance with the lawful direction of the shareholders. Other than provided for in this section, the Inspector of Elections shall not release preliminary or final proxy tallies to anyone without a resolution of the Board of Directors directing the release. All proxies received by the Corporation shall be secured and safeguarded in a manner that ensures the integrity of the voting process.

VI. RULES AND PROCESSES FOR CONDUCTING REGISTRATION AND VOTING FOR THE SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING

A. Registration

The Inspector of Elections is responsible for overseeing the registration of shareholders to vote by ballot during the meeting in accordance with the share register certified by the Corporation's Secretary, which registration may be checked by any shareholder. The time and means of registration will be announced in the notice of the meeting. During the course of registration, the Inspector must:

1. verify shareholder identity with a photo ID, or other acceptable identification;
2. delete from the preliminary proxy tally, in order to create the final proxy tally, the proxy of any shareholder who registers at the meeting and elects to void their proxy and vote by ballot; and
3. advise any shareholder who registers to vote by ballot after having previously given a proxy to another, that their proxy will be voided by such registration.

B. Quorum

The Inspector of Elections is responsible for ascertaining whether there is quorum for the meeting. The Inspector must determine the number of shares of stock outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares of stock represented at the meeting (including shares for which there are valid proxies); and determine the existence of a quorum and to make this information known to the Chair and the shareholders assembled for the meeting. At any time prior to the meeting, the Inspector of Elections may release the quorum status to the Board of Directors, the President, and General Counsel.

1. Adjournment for lack of quorum. If, at the close of registration for the annual meeting, the Inspector of Elections certifies that a quorum does not exist, the meeting may be adjourned and a later time set for the close of registration so that a quorum may be obtained for the transaction of business.
2. Withdrawal of quorum. Shareholders present at an annual meeting at which a quorum is established may continue to do business until adjournment notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough shareholders to leave less than a quorum.

C. Voting

The Inspector of Elections is responsible for overseeing ballot voting for the annual meeting. The Inspector of Elections must:

1. establish and implement such other controls for the meeting as may be necessary to ensure the integrity of the ballots cast for the meeting;
2. prepare and distribute ballots;
3. carefully explain the voting procedures for the meeting, including the effect of cumulative voting and how to properly fill out the ballot; and
4. impartially aid any shareholder who requests help in properly filling out a ballot.

The Inspector of Elections shall ensure that all registered voters are aware of the close of voting. At an in-person shareholder meeting, fifteen (15) minutes prior to the close of voting, an announcement shall be made that voting will close in fifteen minutes. The Election Judge may extend voting upon the authority of the Board of Directors.

D. Tabulation

When voting is complete, the Inspector of Elections must tabulate votes in accordance with shareholder registration and the ballots voted. The Inspector must maintain the security of the place where tabulation of votes shall take place, allowing ingress therein only to the Inspector of Elections, the Election Judge, and their agents. In tabulating votes, the Inspector of Elections shall reduce any “over vote” by making a pro rata reduction of the votes received by any candidate receiving votes in the “over-vote” sufficient to eliminate the “over-vote.” In addition, if a shareholder expresses no preference among candidates on the Board solicited proxy (sometimes referred to as undirected, unallocated, or discretionary votes), and the proxy has been filed with the Inspector of Elections, the Proxy Committee shall divide those votes equally among all of the candidates listed on the proxy, provided that the candidate(s) has not withdrawn from the election.

E. Results

The Inspector of Elections is responsible for announcing the results of total votes cast.

F. Proxy and Door Prize Drawings

The Inspector of Elections must prepare for in advance and conduct drawings for any proxy prize or registration incentives to be provided by the Corporation for the meeting. Only those shareholders that cast a valid proxy by the appropriate deadlines shall be eligible for proxy prizes. Only those shareholders eligible to vote and present at the annual meeting shall be eligible for a door prize if offered.

G. Written Report

The Inspector of Elections must provide to the Election Judge and the Corporation a written report within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of election, including an executed sworn statement certifying that all activities enumerated in this section were faithfully performed in accordance with these Rules. The Corporation shall make such report available for any shareholder to review.

H. Retention of Records

The Inspector of Elections must maintain in a secure manner all proxy documents, the ballots, Election Judge reports, and all working documents for a period of one hundred (100) days from the date of the annual meeting, at which time they shall be destroyed. The Election Judge may direct the Inspector of Elections to preserve records for a longer period of time.

VII. CONDUCT OF ANNUAL MEETING

A. Rules of Order

The Chair shall call the meeting to order and preside throughout, unless those duties have been delegated to the President. The presiding officer shall conduct the meeting in a manner that gives each shareholder a fair opportunity to address the meeting. The meeting shall be conducted according to the agenda approved by the Board and presented with the notice of the meeting. The presiding officer may deviate from the agenda at his/her discretion to accommodate efficiency or other mishap. The presiding officer may look to Robert's Rules of Order as a guideline to the extent deemed helpful in ruling on parliamentary issues that arise during the meeting. On questions of parliamentary procedure, the decision of the Chair is final. The Chair may make reasonable rules to fulfill public health directives while ensuring that the meeting proceeds, if possible, and the shareholders' interest in participation is respected.

B. Shareholder Debate and Comments

Candidates nominated for director may be allowed five minutes to address the shareholders prior to the polls closing. During debate on an issue, shareholders who wish to speak must be recognized by the Chair and shall limit their comments to five minutes. During a question or comment period, shareholders should limit the comments and questions to five minutes. At the discretion of the presiding officer, the rules may be relaxed to allow a speaker more time or allow individuals to speak more than once.

C. Nominations

All persons listed as candidates on the board solicited proxy are deemed nominated to serve as director. Nominations for director that are not included on the board solicited proxy may be received from the floor of the meeting at an in-person meeting, or by written submission for a virtual meeting. Nominations must have a second and the nominee must be present at an in-person meeting to accept the nomination.

D. Non-Shareholder Participation

1. The annual meeting will be closed to all non-shareholders except:

- a. The spouse of a shareholder, if the shareholder is present in person or by proxy;
- b. Officers and staff of the Corporation and its auditors;
- c. Corporate counsel;
- d. The Election Judge(s) and persons in the judge's employ;
- e. Other persons at the invitation of the officers of the Corporation or the Board of Directors; and
- f. Descendants of shareholders, including children of an enrolled shareholder.

2. Non-shareholder participation. No non-shareholder shall participate in the meeting or address the body unless requested to do so by the presiding officer. The presiding officer will have the absolute right and discretion to allow any non-shareholder to speak, or to stop the speech of any non-shareholder. The presiding officer may order and provide for the removal of any non-shareholder acting in violation of this paragraph or contrary to the presiding officer's instructions.

VIII. PROCESS FOR CHALLENGES TO THE ELECTION

A. Request for Recount

A participant may submit a written request for a recount to the Election Judge by no later than 5:00 p.m. Alaska time within four (4) days of the election. One recount shall be required, if requested, under conditions determined appropriate by the Election Judge, if the requesting participant was a candidate for the Board of Directors, was not successful, and the total votes received by the requesting participant were within 1% of the total votes received by the next closest successful candidate. One recount may be required by the Election Judge if the request, as determined by the Election Judge, establishes a reasonable basis that a recount would alter the results of the election.

B. Interference with Shareholder Voting

1. A person interferes with voting if the person:
 - a. uses, threatens to use, or causes to be used force, coercion, violence, or restraint, or inflicts, threatens to inflict, or causes to be inflicted damage, harm, or loss upon or against another person to induce or compel that person to vote or refrain from voting in an election;
 - b. knowingly pays, offers to pay, or causes to be paid money or other valuable things to a person to vote or refrain from voting for specific candidates;

c. solicits, accepts, or agrees to accept money or other valuable things with the intent to vote or refrain from voting in an election;

d. causes to be used alcohol, drugs, or other intoxicants upon or against another person to induce or compel that person to refrain from voting in an election, or to render that person incapable of voting in an election; or

e. supplies a false sworn affidavit in support of a complaint of interference.

2. Complaints of Interference

a. shall be submitted in writing to the Election Judge by no later than 5:00 p.m. Alaska time on a date within four (4) days of discovering the alleged interference; and

b. shall be supported with sworn affidavits of the person suffering the interference and any witnesses thereto.

3. The Election Judge shall promptly schedule and proceed expeditiously to hear the matter in a proceeding which may be attended by any shareholder or shareholder's representative(s), but which shall take place in accordance with such rules and upon such evidence as the Election Judge, in his or her sole discretion, shall deem appropriate and just, and which is in accordance with due process. The Election Judge shall then rule as to whether there has been interference with voting, or other wrongdoing, and his or her decision shall be final.

4. Penalties for interference with voting may include, but are not limited to, allowing the person affected by the interference to recast their vote and having the new revised vote tallied and appropriate Board seats filled accordingly; if a violator is elected, forfeiting the Board seat to the candidate with the next highest votes at the preceding election; referral to the District Attorney for the State of Alaska for criminal prosecution; or such other remedy as the Election Judge shall deem just and appropriate given the nature and circumstances of the violation.

IX. ALTERNATIVE MEETING PROCEDURES FOR STATES OF EMERGENCY

A. Invocation of Alternative Meeting Guidelines

If a state of emergency is likely to interfere with the planning or conduct of a shareholder meeting, the Board of Directors may adopt a resolution to notice that a shareholder meeting will be conducted under the alternative meeting guidelines and the rules in this section.

B. Interpretation of Alternative Meeting Guidelines

The alternative meeting guidelines may curtail the interactive aspects of a typical shareholder meeting to account for circumstances that make it illegal or unsafe for large numbers of shareholders to congregate in the same location. To the extent the alternative meeting guidelines are inconsistent with the rules or customs for a typical shareholder meeting, the alternative meeting guidelines shall apply.

C. Notice of Alternative Meeting and Rules of Conduct

The notice of an alternative meeting shall inform shareholders of the limitations on in-person attendance for the meeting, describe voting registration requirements, encourage shareholders to vote by proxy, identify ways shareholders can observe the meeting from remote locations, and describe other modifications to the procedures for in-person meetings.

D. Voting Registration

Because the alternative meeting may be held by remote communication without a site for shareholders to attend in person, the guidelines may limit in-person ballot voting. The guidelines approved by the board and distributed with the notice of the meeting shall state the voting registration requirements. Shareholders must comply with the voting procedures, cooperate to protect the health of the other meeting participants, and cooperate to ensure the orderly conduct of the meeting.

E. Physical Attendance at the Alternative Meeting

Physical attendance at any site of the meeting may be limited to the Chair of the meeting and personnel the Chair deems essential. Appropriate accommodations shall be made for persons voting on the day of the meeting that provide for the health and safety of all participants and ensure orderly ballot voting.

F. Electronic Attendance at the Alternative Meeting

The corporation may provide a means for shareholders to hear or see the shareholder meeting by electronic means.

G. Recording Actions Taken during Alternative Meeting

The corporation shall make an audio recording of the meeting and maintain the audio recording for 90 days after the adjournment of the meeting at which time it may be destroyed. No alterations of the audio or video recording may be made prior to any distribution to shareholders. Any failures with the recording of the meeting shall not impact the validity of the meeting. Any other recording of the shareholder meeting is prohibited.
